JEREMIAH THE PROPHET

Many artifacts confirming Biblical figures and events which occurred at the time of Jeremiah the prophet have come to light.

The first is a seal found in 1932 at a dig site in the Biblical city of Mizpah. It lists Jaazaniah, one of the Judean military officers mentioned in II Kings 25:23. It is inscribed with the following words:

"Yaazenyahu (Jaazaniah), Servant of the King"

Another seal mentions Neria, he was the father of Jeremiah's scribe, Baruch, mentioned in Jeremiah 36:4, as well as Seraiah who is mentioned in Jeremiah 51:59: "The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neria, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince."

The seal is inscribed with the following words:

"SERIAHU, SON OF NERIAHU"

Seriah Seal

In 1935, a collection of letters written on pottery were unearthed in the biblical city of Lachish. These letters confirm events that occurred during King Zedekiah's reign. The letters also mention the names of biblical figures, possibly even the prophet Jeremiah.

The letters seem to have been written around 588 B.C. when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon was waging war against Jerusalem and the fortified cities that Judah used for defense.

The first pottery fragment known as letter IV is inscribed with the following words:

Letter IV: ..."I will send for him tomorrow at daylight. And let it be known to my master that we will be looking for the signals from Lachish, according to the instructions which he has given, for no signals from Azekah have been seen."

LACHISH LETTER IV

Lachish and Azekah were two of Judah's fortresses first mentioned in 2Chronicles 11:5-12:

"So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. And he built Bethlehem, . . . Lachish, Azekah, Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities. And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine. Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side."

The Lachish letters were written by the commander of Lachish who was under siege. Letter IV seems to indicate that the city of Azekah had fallen. This historic event confirms the Biblical account found in Jeremiah 34:6-7 which says: "Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah; for only these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah."

Another pottery fragment found at Lachish had the following inscription written on it which mentions two biblical figures:

Letter III: "The commander of the army, Coniah son of Elnathan, has arrived and will shortly leave for Egypt." ...."And as for the letter from the servant of the king, Tobiah, which came to Shallum son of Jaddu'a through the prophet , saying 'Be on your guard!', your subject has sent it to my lord."

The first biblical name found in Letter III is Elnathan. There are references to two men named Elnathan in the Bible during this time frame; the first being Elnathan of Jerusalem who was the grandfather of king Jehoiachin, father-in-law to king Jehoiakim. He is found in 2Kings 24:8:

"Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem . . . At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. And he carried Jehoiachin captive to Babylon . . . Then the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah."

The appointment of Zedekiah as king over Judah mentioned in the preceding passage has also been found in records from Babylon known as the Babylonian Chronicles. The tablet records that after Jerusalem was captured by Nebuchadnezzar in March of 597 B.C., "He installed a king of his own choosing." (Zedekiah)

The second Elnathan found in the Bible is Elnathan son of Achbor, who was a prince in king Jehoiakim's household. He is mentioned in Jeremiah 26:22 and Jeremiah 36:12.

In the second part of letter III is an astonishing statement about a letter which came to Shallum son of Jaddu'a through the Prophet. Since there was only one major prophet at the time the Lachish letter was written, it seems very likely that this is an amazing reference to the prophet Jeremiah of the Old Testament. And Shallum son of Jaddu'a may in fact be the uncle of Jeremiah who is mentioned in Jeremiah 32:6-9:

And Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

Note : a shekel is a weight, 17 shekels is equal to 30 average size silver pieces.

God told Jeremiah that he would one day buy for himself a field for thirty pieces of silver, because the right of inheritance and redemption was his. He also foretold this event to the Prophet Zechariah.

Zechariah 11:7-13: "And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD."

JESUS BUYS A FIELD WITH HIS BLOOD

"Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned,
and brought again the thirty pieces of silver
to the chief priests and elders,
Saying, I have sinned in that
I have betrayed the innocent blood.
And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.
And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple,
and departed, and went and hanged himself.
And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said,
It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
Wherefore that field was called,
The field of blood, unto this day.
Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,
And they took the thirty pieces of silver,
the price of him that was valued,
whom they of the children of Israel did value;
And gave them for the potter's field,
as the Lord appointed me."
